

Quotes about Brook's performances and recordings

<http://www.magicbrook.com/>

"This is Pagan music in the broadest and best sense -- earthy folk-blues from the heart. It's a testimony to the richness of this CD that you find, seamlessly interwoven the well-crafted original songs, a cover of Elmore James' classic "Dust My Broom." Earth-based blues, indeed!" - Reclaiming Quarterly

"Your music is so unique. We listen to a lot of music as you may guess, and your CD is so refreshing. It's made it from the play on the station only stack of Cd's to the personal stack!" - Wendy Wizardwoman, www.wgds.net, Goddess Radio

"Like his first CD, this recording is held together by Brook's versatile and accomplished guitar playing, which runs a gamut from blues to jazz to folk. The live recording enhances the presence of the playing and singing, which is by turns reflective, relaxing, and stirring...For listeners wanting a roots-ier feel to their Pagan music, this CD and its predecessor are a great place to start." - Bill Dewey - Reclaiming Quarterly

"There's nothing like Brook in the pagan music world. I'm very excited about his new album." - Anne Hill, CEO of Serpentine Music, author of Circle Round, and singer-songwriter of the accompanying CD.

"Brook is the one who impressed me the most. Besides his good jazz and blues sense on bass and guitar, he's a fine writer." - Lisa Gygax, EastBay Perspectives.

"...and if Schoenfield (Brook) isn't the finest jazz guitarist (on the Central Coast), he is very close to it." - Denise Caruso, San Luis Obispo Telegraph Tribune.

"We sold both houses, standing room only, and they were dancing in the aisles." - Renaldo Jackson, Motown recording artist.

"The Bluesman" - Richie Cole, "Alto Madness"

"He cares so much about the music." - Bo Diddley, rock 'n roll pioneer

"Great facility. I really dig your playing." - Kenny Burrell, jazz guitarist

"Can't let that guitar player steal my show!" - Chuck Berry, rock 'n roll pioneer
